

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read the terms and conditions carefully before using shop.peakperformance.com (the "Website"). By using and shopping on our Website, you agree to accept the terms and conditions described below. As the terms and conditions may be updated from time to time (for example to reflect changes in technology, our business model, our system's capabilities or relevant laws and regulatory requirements), we recommend that you check this page regularly to take notice of any changes we may have made in the terms and conditions.

ORDERING

The online store is open 24 hours a day. However, the store can be closed due to maintenance. For your convenience, we endeavour to execute such work in the night time.

In order to shop at shop.peakperformance.com you must be at least 18 years of age and possess a valid credit card accepted by us. If you have not yet turned 18 years of age, you must also have the legal right to enter into the agreement.

You have the right to inform us of your withdrawal of the purchase, without penalty and without justification, within 30 days as of the day following the delivery of the product.

At the moment we can only fulfil your order if the delivery address is a home or office address in one of the countries listed under "We ship to". Therefore, our site is only intended to be used by people resident in those listed countries. We do not ship to P.O. boxes.

We may decline an offer or cancel a purchase in any of the following situations, without being liable for any damages or costs. We will notify you by email in advance of any such action, to try and resolve the issue and will return any applicable payments made to us without deduction:

We can only accept offers that are made through our Website or by telephone via our Customer Service. We cannot accept orders made by e-mail, letters or fax.

At what point in the ordering process are you bound by your order?

The moment you click "Place order" and the receipt is displayed on your screen, you are bound by your offer, however, please see "Returns, Cancellations and Complaints".

The receipt you receive is an automated acknowledgement that means we have received your submitted offer. However, the acknowledgement does not mean that we have accepted your offer, and we reserve an explicit right to decline your offer after you have received the automatic acknowledgement.

If we accept your offer, you will receive an e-mail from us confirming that we have accepted your order (order confirmation). The contract between you and us will be effective from the time that the order confirmation is sent.

If you made an error when placing your order, please contact our Customer Service Team who will be happy to assist you. However, please always make sure to review your offer before placing it. Before submitting, you have the possibility yourself to edit any information you have entered, such as the shipping or billing address or credit card information, or change or delete items in your shopping bag.

Access to the agreement

We store all contracts made, including your offer and the order confirmation, and we recommend that you file these too, as subsequently the documents will not be accessible. However, please see "Track your order and view history".

Fraud screening

In order to protect our customers and maintain the security of shopping online, we may run verification checks on the data you submit when you place an offer. These checks may include address and payment verification and screening your offer to prevent fraud.

PAYMENT METHODS

We accept the following payment methods:

- MasterCard
- VISA
- Solo/Maestro (UK only)
- Paypal

Please note that we cannot accept any payment methods not specified above. If you try to pay by any other methods, we will not be liable for your loss of payment or any other damages caused by your action.

Credit Card Verification Number

To maintain your own security and prevent fraud, you will be asked to enter your Card Verification Number (CVV) when paying with credit card. You can find the 3 digit number on the back of your credit card. It generally appears to the right of your credit card number.

Payment processing

When your order and data have been verified and your ordered products leave our stock for shipping, the payment will be deducted from your account.

Please note that your billing address must be entered exactly as it appears on your bank statement.

PRICES & VAT

All prices on products, shipping charges and other services include value added tax (VAT).

The shipping charge is added per order. Please go to "Shipping Charges" for details concerning the charges for your specific country. We will always inform you of the total price, including all taxes, VAT and other costs such as fees and possible delivery costs.

The prices displayed on the Website are those that apply at the time of purchase. The prices may be subject to change without notice, but changes will not affect orders which we have accepted. We will verify prices as part of our confirmation procedures. If the correct price is less than our stated price, the lesser amount will be charged to you. If the correct price is higher than the price stated on our Website, we will attempt to contact you. If we are unable to contact you, we will reject your offer and notify you by e-mail.

- Norwegian Kroner (NOK)
- Swedish Kroner (SEK)

Order security

We utilise Security Socket Layer (SSL) technology, one of the most secure systems for ordering online that allows encryption of your information, such as your name and address, and critical personal information, such as credit card information. Your information will be encrypted from the moment you enter it, and your personal information will not be saved on a public server. That means that information passed between you and our Website cannot be read in the event someone else intercepts it. The SSL technology provides an authentication that assures your browser that your data is being sent to the correct secure computer server; an encryption that encodes all data, so only the secure server is able to read it; and a data integrity that checks that the transferred data has not been altered.

mail confirmation stating that your order has already been shipped. In such an event, please see "Returning orders after delivery".

Cancelling and Returning orders after delivery

Are you not completely satisfied with your purchase, you have the option of cancelling your order within 30 calendar days after you have received them, provided that:

- the products are both un-used and unwashed; however, you are of course allowed to try on the products to see if they fit you - please ensure that you are not wearing perfume / aftershave or a deodorant which may leave a scent or marks on the item,
- the products are in essentially the same state and quantity in which you received them.

The right of withdrawal

If you are a private individual and not purchasing products on behalf of a business, you may cancel/withdraw your order at any time by informing our Customer Service Team (please see the contact details below) thereof within 30 days from the day you receive the products. In this case, you will receive a refund of the price paid for the products. Please see "Refund information".

The right of withdrawal period

The 30 days time-limit is calculated from the day you receive the product or the first delivery.

We will provide you with information about the right to withdraw and about the product. The right to withdraw is in force when you have entered into the agreement and we have provided you with the above-mentioned information in writing (e.g. on paper or by e-mail). If the information is imperfect, the period for withdrawal expires at the latest 3 months from the day you received the product. If, however, the information is rectified during this period, you have a right of withdrawal during the 30-day period from the date you received the rectified information.

For customers subject to German law and the period for withdrawal will not expire if the information mentioned above is imperfect and not rectified.

Provided that you also received the mentioned information, your right of withdrawal will expire 30 days after the day of receipt. If the time-limit expires on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a holiday in your country, you may wait till the following working day.

How do you exercise your right of withdrawal?

Before the expiry of the 30-days withdrawal period, you must inform our Customer Service of the withdrawal with a notice sent on paper or another durable medium to which the recipient has access, e.g. by sending us an email. In addition, you must return or give back the product to us within a reasonable time from sending the notice, but no later than before the expiry of the 30-day period.

You can also exercise your right of withdrawal if, before the expiry of the 30-day period, you hand over the product to the postal services or another operator who has taken on the task of forwarding the product to us.

You may also exercise your right of withdrawal by abstaining from receiving the product or by abstaining from collecting it at the post office etc.

You will be reimbursed with the purchase price and shipping costs and in addition to the return costs. The return costs will, however, not be reimbursed to you, if the product is returned by ordinary postal service.

If, by agreement, we have delivered a replacement product because the product in general could not be delivered, the cost of returning the product falls on us.

Returning defective products

When we ship your products, we do our best to make sure that the products are top quality and in perfect condition. In the case of defective products or inconformity with your order, you will have the choice of returning the defective product and we will refund you the purchase price and all shipping cost when our Customer Service Team has handled your return. You may also choose to keep the product and ask for a price reduction. Please note that products that are damaged as a result of wear and tear are not considered to be faulty.

The claim shall be made when you discover the defect. Any notice given within a period of two months after you discovered the defect is deemed a timely notice, but in certain cases a longer period may apply under applicable law. Please contact our Customer Service Team, see contact details below, who will arrange for the product to be collected by our courier. If you wish to place another order, our Customer Service Team will be happy to assist you.

For customers subject to Swedish law you have the right to return the product within 36 months.

For customers subject to French law the following applies:

- the warranty against any hidden defects of the goods sold, which applies for two years following the discovery of the defect,
- the warranty of conformity of the Civil Code, which enables you to require that the product delivered be the same as the product ordered, and which applies for five years from the date of delivery of the product; and
- the warranty of conformity of the Consumer Code, which applies for two years from the delivery of the product.

Please note that any such claim requires that you have not used the products inappropriately and that the product is not defective due to your conduct.

Incorrect Items

Occasionally the wrong item may get sent out. If this has happened to you, we sincerely apologize.

Please contact our Customer Service Team who will be able to re-order the correct item for you and arrange for the incorrect product to be collected by our courier.

REFUND INFORMATION

After we receive and process your order you will be issued with the appropriate refund. Please allow 2-3 weeks for the refund to be credited to your account.

We aim to process a refund within 3 days of receiving your parcel, and send you an e-mail to let you know we have received and processed it. After you have received the e-mail, please allow another 5-10 working days for the refund to be credited to your account. The amount of time this takes will depend on which bank or card issuer you have. Unfortunately this delay is outside of our control. You can expect a refund in the same form of payment originally used for purchase.
